

IN A VERY BAD MESS.

The Alliance Politician Arrested and Fined for Intoxication.

Claims He Was Robbed of $40 and a Gold Watch.

He Lost the Election Supplies Received From the Board

And They Were Found Later at John Zimmerman's Saloon.

Not a Vote Cast in the Third Ward, Alliance Until 3:30.

A Warrant Issued For Bush's Arrest—The Penalty is a Fine of Not Less Than $100, or More Than $1,000, or Imprisonment Not to Exceed One Year—Bush Says He is Sick and Never Received the Supplies From the Board of Elections—The Affair Has Caused a Big Sensation.

C. H. Bush, the well known Alliance politician, has created the biggest sensation of his life, in that city.

The polls in the third ward of Alliance were not opened until nearly 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning, and consequently not a vote was cast until that hour.

This means a heavy loss to the republican ticket, as the ward is strongly republican and many of the voters are railroad men, who were compelled to leave before the polls opened. The democrats will also lose a large number of votes.

The reason for the polls not being opened at 5:30 o'clock, as provided by law, was because the ballots and necessary supplies had not been received from the board of elections.

C. H. Bush was sent to Canton after the supplies last Saturday, and when he failed to appear at the voting place this morning at the usual hour, a messenger was sent to Bush's residence. That gentleman said he "was sick and had never got any supplies from the board of elections."

A messenger was sent post haste to the board of election rooms in Canton, and he was furnished with the necessary supplies. It was nearly 9 o'clock before he could get back to Alliance with the ballots.

GET HIS SUPPLIES.

It was learned here that Bush called at the board of election rooms on Saturday and got his supplies. He then proceeded to take in the sights of Canton. He has a weakness, and it is said, visited a number of saloons in the vicinity of Saxton street.

At John Zimmerman's saloon he left the package of election supplies, which were returned to the board of elections this morning.

Bush was the republican judge in the third ward, Alliance, and was formerly president of the city council. At home he is known as a strict temperance man, but when in Canton, he generally has a high old time, and is figured in several escapades in this city.

The republicans are up in arms at the action of Bush, and the matter has been referred to Prosecutor Bow to take the necessary legal action. The third ward last year cast 280 republican and 74 democratic votes.

AFFIDAVIT FOR HIS ARREST.

An affidavit for the arrest of Bush was prepared by Prosecutor Bow, and signed by President A. McGregor, of the board of elections. It was filed before Justice Webb, and will be served during the day.

The affidavit contains four counts. The first charges Bush with failing to deliver the supplies to the proper officer, the second with unlawfully misplacing the supplies, the third with negligently losing them, and the fourth with permitting them to be taken from him.

The affidavit was filed under section No. 37 of the supervising election laws, which reads as follows:

Any judge or clerk of election, or printer or other person entrusted with the custody or delivery of ballots, blank, poll-books, cards of instruction, or other required papers who shall unlawfully open or permit to be opened, any sealed package containing ballots, or who shall give or deliver to any person not lawfully entitled thereto, or shall unlawfully misplace or carry away, or shall negligently lose, or permit to be taken from him, or fall to deliver, or shall, except as in this act provided, destroy any such package of ballots, or any ballot, blank, poll-book, card of instruction, or other required paper, shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisoned in jail not more than one year, or both.

THE NEWS AT ALLIANCE.

Word received from Alliance by the News-Democrat states that the first vote in the third ward was cast at 3:30 o'clock. It is estimated the vote will fall short at least fifty, on account of the lateness of opening the polls.

Mr. Bush, when seen by a reporter stated positively that he had not received the supplies and if his name was signed in Canton some one else must have received them. Bush still says he is "sick." He reached home Monday night at 10 o'clock.

BUSH ARRESTED FOR INTOXICATION.

Recent developments show C. H. Bush must have had a very lively time while in Canton. Sunday night he was arrested by Patrolmen Wieland and Batten on the charge of intoxication. He registered at C. H. Brown and Monday morning Mayor Rice fined him $1 and costs. He didn't have the money to settle and got a friend to advance him the amount.

SAID HE WAS ROBBED.

Bush claimed that he had been robbed about midnight Sunday while in Charles Zimmerman's saloon. He registered at C. H. Brown and Monday morning Mayor Rice fined him $1 and costs. He didn't have the money to settle and got a friend to advance him the amount.

BOUGHT A BICYCLE FACTORY.

The Goshen, Ind., bicycle factory has been purchased by Ed Langenbach and A. H. Schaefer and will be moved to Canton, where it will be operated in connection with the Berger company. The output for the year is already guaranteed at $500.

IT DID NOT COME.

The Glad Tidings Looked For by Canton Democracy

Conspicuous by Its Absence—How the Vanquished Received The Returns at Their Headquarters Tuesday Night.

It was a good natured but sorely disappointed assemblage of citizens who listened to the reading of the election returns at the democratic headquarters on East Tuscarawas street Tuesday night, and who in listening were loth to believe. Later returns merely emphasized the fact that the party had been overwhelmingly defeated. There was not much cheering, for reasons that need not be obvious.

The ray of hope in the gloom of republican victory was the wonderful gain made by the party in New York. This was something to jubilate over and an indulgent victor could afford to be generous in not begrudging the vanquished this one morsel.

Quite a large crowd remained in the quarters until a late hour, anxiously awaiting that which did not come.

FIRED AT A MAN.

The New Manager of the Comique Near Death.

It Results From Trouble With an Italian

Who is Said to Have Stood Outside and Coolly Fired

Into the Lighted Room Where Three Persons Are Sitting, Engaged in Conversation—The Chase by the Officers.

A bold attempt was made at an early hour Tuesday morning to murder William Malcolm, the proprietor of the new People's theatre. Five shots were fired through the window of his room, none of them striking the mark. An Italian named John Maroon is under arrest charged with doing the shooting.

It seems that Joe Petcoo is a frequent visitor at the theatre, and was there last night in company with Maroon.

About 11:45 o'clock Malcolm told the employees to close the place, and get every one out before midnight. The Italians objected to going, and wanted something more to drink. It was explained that it was election day, and Joe appeared to understand the situation, and urged his companion to leave. John wanted to go down the back way, and Malcolm explained to him that he must leave by the front door. Malcolm says there was not even a loud word spoken, and the men left without any trouble.

Malcolm remained at the theatre until about 12:30 o'clock, when he went to the boarding house, 100 East Seventh street. Malcolm took off his coat, and was standing near the window in the front room down stairs. Mrs. Sullivan was standing near him, while Mrs. Malcolm was sitting up in bed talking to her husband.

Suddenly one pistol shot followed another in quick succession, and Malcolm thinking some one was throwing against the house, raised the curtain and looked out. He saw a man standing near the window, revolver in hand, and saw the flash of the weapon. Malcolm dropped to the floor, and escaped uninjured. None of the five shots fired struck any of the occupants of the room.

Malcolm says the man who did the shooting was John Maroon, who is now under arrest. The other man, Joe Petcoo was not with him at the time, and consequently was not arrested.

It was a very narrow escape for Malcolm and the other parties in the room, and seems almost a miracle that they escaped uninjured. The five shots all went through the window, three piercing the glass, and two the sash.

After emptying his revolver the man took to his heels and the police were notified. Patrolmen Wieland, Batten, Harding and Bruce started in search of the Italian, accompanied by Malcolm. Joe Petcoo was finally located, and held until Maroon could be found. When arrested, Maroon had a revolver in his possession, which had evidently just been reloaded. Burned powder could be plainly smelled.

Maroon would give no account of himself, simply saying "He no shoot." He is held to answer to a charge of shooting with intent to kill.

There is something of a mystery connected with the attempted murder, and Malcolm thinks possibly it may have been a deep laid plot. Some years ago he produced and played in a scene called "The Mafia," which dealt with the New Orleans tragedy in a manner that didn't please a certain class of Italians. In San Francisco some Italians tried to entice Malcolm into an out of the way place, as he thinks, to kill him. Malcolm says it may be possible Maroon heard of this, and attempted to avenge an imagined insult.

This morning one of the bullets was found in Mrs. Sullivan's hair where it had lodged. It was certainly a narrow escape for her.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.

Maroon was arraigned before Mayor Rice, and entered a plea of not guilty. His bond was fixed at $500, and the hearing set for Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

When seen by a News-Democrat reporter he denied doing the shooting and said he had not been near the boarding house. He admitted being at the theatre and drinking beer with the girls. He said he had no trouble with Malcolm and didn't belong to the Mafia. He has been in Canton five years and boards at 474 East South street.

$5,000 DAMAGE SUIT.

Mrs. Kate Burr has brought actions against John Roll and George Nist charging each of them with selling liquor to her husband, Pater Burr after they had been notified to stop under the provisions of the Adair law. Plaintiff asks damages in each case in the sum of $5,000. A. S. Van Buskirk is the plaintiff's attorney.

HARRISON

A Candidate—The Indiana Man in the Race.

HE'LL BUCK MCKINLEY

For Part of the Ohio Delegation—This is the Program and Foraker Will See That It is Carried Out.

Columbus, November 4.—There is no longer any mystery about ex-President Harrison. He is a presidential candidate. Most everybody believed he was and would be, but few supposed he would be announced at this time. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, owned and edited by Perry Heath, yesterday announced that Harrison was a candidate, that he could not longer hold back, because McKinley, Reed and others were laying their plans, and he, Harrison, must do likewise. Heath, of the C. G. is a warm personal friend of Mr. Harrison's. He is an Indian also and this means that the greatest republican paper in Ohio is to be for Harrison and against McKinley and all others.

A very significant feature of the Commercial Gazette article is that it means Foraker will also take part in behalf of Harrison.

There is no question but that the McKinley men are shaping things to give Harrison at least half of the Ohio delegation. This would be a big victory and a crushing blow to Ohio's governor.

HE DIED SUDDENLY.

A Pain in Adam W. Bomberger's Breast Sunday Morning

CAUSES HIS DEATH

Within an Hour of the Time He is Awakened by It—Medical Aid Summoned But Proves Unavailing—A Well Spent Life.

Adam W. Bomberger, of No. 31 West South street, one of Canton's best known citizens, died suddenly Sunday morning at 5 o'clock of neuralgia of the heart, aged 54 years.

Mr. Bomberger retired Saturday evening in apparently the best of health. At 4 o'clock he awoke Mrs. Bomberger, complaining of a severe pain in the heart. Dr. Fraumiller was called and came immediately, and although everything possible was done Mr. Bomberger died within the hour.

The deceased was married to Miss Susan Archer in 1869, in Canton, and they took up their residence in Orrville, living there eleven years, then removing to Cleveland and then to Canton in 1884, where they have since resided. He leaves a wife and daughter, Miss Anna M. Bomberger, to mourn his death. Mr. Bomberger was a brother to Cyrus Bomberger, the postman, and has three sisters surviving him who live in Canton, and are Mrs. Lehman Fox, Mrs. Uriah Sloate and Miss Martha Bomberger. Mr. Bomberger's mother, Mrs. Mattie Spranklin, also lives in Canton.

Mr. Bomberger was a traveling representative of the Slattington, Bangor State Syndicate of Slattington, Pa. He was during the war a color bearer in Company I, 104th regiment, O. V. I. At the time of his death, Mr. Bomberger was a member of George D. Harter Post, G. A. R. No. 555, also a member of the Odd Fellows, Logan Council, No. O. U. A. M. and the Protected Home Circle.

The funeral will be held at the house Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 in charge of the Odd Fellows' lodge, Rev. O. B. Milligan, of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Bomberger was a member, preaching the funeral sermon. Interment will take place in Westlawn cemetery.

EXTREME RITUALISM

In the Protestant Episcopal Church Given a Blow by

THE HOUSE OF BISHOPS.

The Pastoral Letter Approved by the Minneapolis Convention is Sent to the Various Ministers to be Read Before the Congregations—What It Provides.

The pastoral letter of the house of bishops, approved at the late Minneapolis convention, has been sent to the Protestant Episcopal ministers.

It is the law of the church. The pastoral letter is one of the most important utterances of the house of bishops in its history, in that it sets forth unmistakably the attitude of the church toward extreme ritualism. This it does in moderate and dignified language and with every regard for fair and just discussion; but it does it, nevertheless, and forcibly. In this the pastoral opposes itself to the tendencies if not the actual practices of some ritualistic churches.

The latter part of the pastoral, which deals with the subject of ritualism on broad grounds, is said to have been prepared by one of the highest dignitaries of the church. This part of the document practically legislates by cautioning clergymen not to introduce any act or service which violates the intention and purpose of the prayer book. Postures and acts of reverence natural to an individual may be not only distasteful but distracting to people in general who make up the average congregation. In this connection the danger of exaggerating the minor accessories to worship is emphasized.

The pastoral letter refers to the growing appreciation of the communion service as a matter for rejoicing, but warns a warning note against disparaging other services on account of this appreciation. The calling of the communion service a "mass" is deprecated because as the pastoral, it "would be as harmless as it is unmeaning were it not for its indication of a desire to import the language of another communion—it is enough to say that the words involve the surrender of the many independence of a church rooted in the primitive soil of Christianity to a church which has no claim on the allegiance of the English speaking race."

HABEAS CORPUS

Served to Keep a Young Man In Trouble Out of Jail.

A case of Thomas Huth, arrested on a delinquent charge, preferred by Tom Luxman, was heard Saturday before Mayor Rice. Huth was bound over to common pleas court, bond being fixed in the sum of $500. This he refused to give, and was delivered into the custody of Marshal Reed. A writ of habeas corpus, was secured upon the marshal, and the prisoner taken before the probate judge. Attorney C. C. Upham who represented the defendant, claims the mayor does not have jurisdiction in cases of this kind, which must be commenced before a justice of the peace.

COAL SUIT.

A Big Company Begins Action to Have Lease Changed.

The Ridgway-Burton Coal Co. has commenced action in common pleas court against Harvey S. Hardgrove and Jeremiah H. Williams. The petition alleges that Hardgrove was employed by the company to secure coal leases, and one obtained by him from Williams was made out in name of the agent instead of the company. The action is brought to have the lease changed.

A CANTON WOMAN

Who Will Push a Suit—Denies the Existence of a Lease.

A Massillon dispatch says: Mrs. Kate Linton of Canton, has brought suit against the A. D. Cox Piano Company to recover $40 alleged to be due on an unexpired lease. A Canton constable came to Massillon this morning and appraised two pianos. The managers of the company claim that they never entered into a lease with Mrs. Linton and they will fight the case.

HAS RESIGNED

Station Agent Stotler Gives Up His Official Position at Canal Fulton.

W. A. Stotler, ex-clerk of Canal Fulton, who has been charged with misdoings while acting in that capacity, it is said has been forced to resign station agent of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. He has handed in his resignation and it is said it will be accepted without ceremony. Stotler is the republican who maliciously attacked Mayor McCadden's administration simply because Mayor McCadden was a democrat.

A REPORTED CUT

That President John C. Dueber Declines to Discuss.

THE BICYCLE FACTORY

To Be Paid More Attention Than the Making of Watches, According to the Story of the Employees Who Say They Have Had Their Wages Cut.

The employees of the Hampden watch works report having received a cut in wages ranging in some cases as high as 25 per cent. Most of the employees are now only working part of the week. The season approaching Christmas is generally a busy season.

Col. W. A. Moore was asked by a News-Democrat reporter if the report was correct but he stated that he knew nothing of it. He referred the reporter to Mr. J. C. Dueber who was seen. Mr. Dueber did not care to discuss the story and in the course of his remarks stated that if a cut has been made it is an affair of his own and none of the general public's business. The story goes that the cut is due to the bicycle department to which more attention is to be paid than to watches.

MAY CONTEST IT.

The Bush Fiasco Creates a Stir in Alliance.

LEGAL COMPLICATIONS

May Result From the Indiscretion of a Judge of Election From Alliance in His Canton Festivities.

Alliance, November 6.—The fiasco of Charles H. Bush, the councilman and election judge, in becoming intoxicated in Canton and losing his election supplies has caused a stir here.

Democrats were quick to declare that they would demand that the entire vote of the ward be thrown out, upon the ground of illegality for non-compliance with the law. Should the result be so close that upon the admittance or rejection of the vote of this ward should depend the success or defeat of any one of the candidates, it is not difficult to imagine the legal complications that would follow.

Probably in such a case a contest would be made entailing upon the parties interested much delay, annoyance and expense as the result of Mr. Bush's fiasco. There can be no doubt that a considerable number of persons were deprived of their votes Tuesday morning. Laboring men on the way to their work stopped at the polling place, waited as long as they could and then went away. Some of them found time to revile the p. l. and deposit their votes; others could not or did not and lost their vote. In case of a contest all these facts would enter into the question at issue.

ANOTHER CHURCH FIGHT.

In Which the Former Noted Canton Rector Resigns His Pulpit for Eric, Pa., and the Church is Closed by the Sheriff.

Rev. Howard McQuary, who raised such a furor throughout the country while rector of the Episcopal church in this city, several years ago, is again out of a job.

The Universalist church at Erie, Pa., has been closed for the first time in fifty years. The pastor, Rev. Howard McQuary, who was unfrocked by the Episcopal diocese of Ohio for heresy and who has been the pastor of the Universalist church in Erie ever since, has resigned, and the church property will be sold this week by the sheriff to satisfy claims of long standing.

The church's dissolution comes from dissensions between pastor and a part of the congregation. When the pastor made an effort to raise the debt by subscription the trustees took offense and asked the pastor to attend to things divine.
